

Astron Energy 2022 bursary applications now open!

Eligibility:

- A South African Citizen with a South African bar coded identity document
- Must be applying to or enrolled at a South African institution of higher learning registered with DHET
- Ability to demonstrate potential academic success

What the bursary Covers

The bursary is a full bursary and covers Registration and Tuition Fees, Accommodation, Books and Meal Allowances

Disciplines

- Engineering: Chemical, Civil, Electrical, Electronic, Mechanical, Mechatronics, Production, Process and Industrial
- Information Technology, Data Analytics
- Operations Management, Production Management, Property Studies
- Accounting, Economics, Finance
- Supply Chain Management, Logistics Management, Digital Marketing, Sales and Marketing
- Communication, Linguistics, Media Studies, Graphic Design, Human Resources Management, Industrial Psychology
- Chemistry, Analytical Chemistry, Environmental Health, Occupational Health and Safety

Documents Required

- ID – clear certified copy of ID document

Academic Results

- Matric Students – latest results and copy of acceptance letter
- University/College Students – a copy of the latest academic results and proof of registration

Application Process

Interested and qualifying candidates can apply online at <https://careerwise.co.za/bursaries/online-application/> and use "AE2022" as the promotional code when you register your profile.

People living with disabilities are encouraged to apply. For enquiries please contact Mr John Legoete at: johnl@careerwise.co.za

Closing Date: 31 January 2022

